WHY A&K DMCs

- Over 55 offices in more than 30 countries
- Operating for over 50 years
- Insider access: we can open closed doors that others simply can’t
- Dedicated quality control staff throughout our DMCs
- Security and reassurance: our 24-hour contact lines enable you or your clients to pick up the phone at any hour and speak to our operating teams on the ground
- A robust infrastructure in place in each country, including our own vehicle fleets and guides in many destinations
- The ability to white label our product and operate entirely under our client’s brand if requested
- Dedicated teams dealing in FIT, groups, MICE and special interest travel to ensure your clients are handled correctly
A&K pioneered the first luxury safari in Kenya in 1962, and over fifty years later we are still leaders of the quintessential African safari. Our private safaris and VIP arrangements allow your clients to enjoy the most exclusive wildlife adventures and cultural experiences, setting our services apart from the rest of the herd, from being collected in the vehicle Robert Redford drove in the film Out of Africa, to collaring an elephant in the Maasai Mara.

WHY A&K KENYA?

› A fleet of custom-built safari vehicles, all maintained by in-house mechanics at our workshop
› A private camping operation with 25 tents for the ultimate savannah experience
› A team of 261 across two offices in Nairobi and Mombasa, with only the most experienced, professional and multilingual guides available
› A&K Philanthropy projects in conservation, charity and education, for example the LifeStraw project which now provides clean drinking water to over 15,000 children in the Maasai Mara
› Emergency 24 hour contact numbers for travel professionals and guests and rapid response times

KENYA

Your clients can learn from Jonathan Scott: wildlife expert, photographer and artist, and famous for TV series Big Cat Diary.

MUST SEES

Maasai Mara Bordering Tanzania, the Maasai Mara boasts the Great Wildebeest Migration of over two million wildebeest and zebra, and is home to our private camping division.

Lakipia Private conservancies such as Ol Pejeta and Lewa are some of East Africa’s leading conservation success stories where your clients will have the opportunity to see endangered species such as the black rhino.

The Chyulu Hills and Amboseli eco systems, where Mount Kilimanjaro dominates and provides the perfect background for the huge herds of elephants.

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Lake Turkana, Northern Kenya Little visited Lake Turkana, Kenya’s last frontier, is home to fascinating nomadic tribes and some exceptional archaeological sites.

Lamu Island, North Kenya Coast A UNESCO World Heritage Site blissfully lost in the tides of history with its historical mosques, narrow streets and delicious seafood.

Our team’s expert knowledge of Uganda, combined with our ability to gain insider access to the most unique places, means we guarantee extraordinary experiences for your clients, from gorilla tracking in Bwindi Impenetrable Forest to white water rafting down the famed Bujagali Falls.

WHY A&K UGANDA?

› A 26 strong team, including our own drivers, guides and vehicles
› Our Philanthropy Projects in the Bwindi Impenetrable Forest give your guests a deeper connection to the women and men that live in this remote area
› Emergency 24 hour contact numbers for travel professionals and guests and a quick follow up time

UGANDA

Established in 2003 as an outreach clinic to support the displaced Batwa Pygmies, Bwindi Community Hospital has grown to a fully-fledged hospital that caters to the health needs of over 100,000 people in Bwindi and its vicinity. Guests visiting the hospital can volunteer or make a small donation.

MUST SEES

Bwindi National Park
Boasting the highest population of mountain gorillas in the world, approximately 65% of the entire population, Bwindi National Park is a prime gorilla tracking spot and only a few are lucky enough to get up close and personal with these spectacular creatures. Guests can also meet the Batwa pygmies to gain an insight into life in the forest.

Kibale Forest National Park
Kibale Forest is best known for its high primate density including monkeys, baboons, chimpanzees and mangabeys. Chimp tracking is an exciting excursion where clients can watch the chimps squabble and swing among the forest trees.

Queen Elizabeth National Park
Uganda’s most popular tourist destination, Queen Elizabeth National Park has a very diverse ecosystem including sprawling savannahs, shady forests, volcanic craters and sparkling lakes, and is most famous for its tree-climbing lions.

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Kidepo
Uganda’s most remote and least explored national park, is home to 77 mammal species, including great buffalo herds, as well as 475 bird species. The absence of game-viewing vehicles guarantees a level of exclusivity not found in many parks in Africa.

Jinja
is best known for its incredible white water rafting, often said to be the best in Africa.

ABERCRUMBIE & KENT LEISURE
A & K have been creating inspiring experiences in Zambia since the 1980’s, and therefore know the country intimately. Zambia is justifiably famous for walking safaris, incredible game reserves and pristine wilderness areas. From game drives and helicopter rides over Victoria Falls to white water rafting and canoeing, our experts will recommend an itinerary to suit your clients.

WHY A&K ZAMBIA?

- Local office in Lusaka
- Our team are all experts in their field, and we have access to multilingual guides
- We have centralised quality control and the highest health and safety rating for our preferred properties
- Emergency 24 hour contact line for both agents and guests and prompt response times

MUST SEES

Victoria Falls Whether seen on foot or from the heights of a helicopter, the Victoria Falls are magnificent and a must see on any trip to Zambia. Depending on the time of the year, your clients could walk along the lip of the falls or have lunch on an island overlooking the edge.

South Luangwa National Park South Luangwa is one of Africa’s jewels and is famous for the ever-changing environment and the density of game. Your clients can venture out on foot with a professional Zambian guide and qualified park ranger to learn all about the bush.

Lower Zambezi Guests can enjoy early morning or sunset river cruises down the Lower Zambezi River in a specially constructed motorised boat, or the more active may opt for a canoe.

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Liuwa Plains A hidden gem in Zambia, the Liuwa Plains is the stage for the second biggest wildebeest migration. November is the best time for guests to observe this natural phenomenon.

Make that photographic safari complete with our private label guide who is qualified to instruct guests on the correct use of their equipment.

C&K office
The newest edition to our East Africa portfolio, Rwanda has gone from strength to strength. This tiny landlocked country offers an incredible all-round experience – from watching rhinos and lions on the plains to tracking chimpanzees and gorillas in the forests. Added to these wonderful wildlife experiences are the insider access and unique opportunities our team create for your guests ensuring they have a trip like no other.

WHY A&K RWANDA?

› A dedicated team of tour consultants, guides and vehicles based in Kigali.
› A 24-hour emergency number that provides support to your guests, day and night.
› A product team who are continually looking for new and unique experiences for your guests to ensure their safari is like no other.

MUST SEES

Kigali this vibrant little city is the start and end point for all Rwandan journeys but offers so much more than that. Whilst here your guests will visit the Genocide Memorial which is a moving experience that gives them a deeper understanding of what the country has been through and how far forgiveness has taken their citizens.

Volcanoes National Park This stunning mountain range is home to the famous mountain gorillas which number just short of 1000 left in the wild. Tracking these incredible creatures is a thrilling experience that should be on every guest’s bucket list. Whilst they are here, they can also track the golden monkeys which are endemic to this part of the world.

Nyungwe Forest National Park Located in the south of the country Nyungwe is the largest tropical alpine montane forest in East and Central Africa and is home to over 1000 different species. The forest’s main attraction is tracking the chimpanzees that call the area home however whilst here guests should head up onto the tree canopy walkway and take in the spectacular views.

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Akagera National Park Running along the border of Tanzania, Akagera National Park is Rwanda’s only ‘savannah park’. Recently acclaimed for the reintroduction of rhinos and lions after years without them this park makes a fantastic first stop on any journey. Guests can explore the area by car, boat or on foot allowing them to take in the magnificent scenery and wildlife from a variety of perspectives.

Lake Kivu Located half way between Nyungwe Forest and Volcanoes National Park Lake Kivu is one of the world’s deepest freshwater lakes. However, unlike other lakes in the area that are home to hippo and crocodiles, Kivu is wildlife free making it perfectly safe to swim in. Your guests can explore the island on kayaks, paddle boards or by boat.
A&K Botswana has been creating inspiring experiences since 1982 and offers travellers a truly amazing and diverse safari experience in pristine environments. Your clients can explore the fascinating deserts, wetlands, savannahs, delta and wildlife-packed game reserves of one of the wildest regions in Africa, accompanied by the most experienced and knowledgeable guides throughout.

WHY A&K UGANDA?

› A local office in Maun
› Our own meet and assist in Maun Airport
› Our emergency 24 hour contact number means we are on call 24/7
› Centralised quality control and the highest health and safety ratings with our preferred suppliers

MUST SEES

Okavango Delta The largest inland delta in the world and home to the Moremi Game Reserve. The Okavango Delta is undoubtedly one of the world’s most pristine wilderness areas and boasts dramatic wildlife sightings. Clients can go on game drives, mokoro excursions and view game from the air.

Kalahari Desert Your clients can quad bike through the vast expanse of the Makgadikgadi Salt Pans, get up close and personal with the Kalahari’s wildlife and walk with the few remaining wild Khoisan bushmen.

Chobe River The Chobe draws huge numbers of game to drink and has the highest density of elephants in Africa. It is a photographer’s dream and we have access to a specially constructed photography boat.

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Tuli Block Squeezed between Zimbabwe and South Africa is this pristine wilderness that offers a variety of unique ways to view game, including on horseback and by bicycle. A trip here can also be combined with the Greater Kruger Area.

SOUTHERN AFRICA: BOTSWANA

Your clients can have an incredible experience with elephants that have been nurtured by Doug and Sandi Groves in the lower Okavango Delta.
A & K is a one stop shop for destination management services in Southern Africa. As well as having offices in South Africa, Botswana and Zambia, we can handle operations in Zimbabwe, Namibia, Mozambique and the Indian Ocean islands of Mauritius, Madagascar and the Seychelles, catering for all of your clients’ Southern Africa needs.

WHY A&K SOUTHERN AFRICA?

- Five regional offices in Southern Africa – Johannesburg, Cape Town, Victoria Falls and Maun
- Emergency 24 hour contact number for travel professionals and guests and a rapid response time
- Centralised quality control to ensure a high standard of service is maintained
- Extremely skilled consultants with a rich and varied knowledge of South Africa

Few countries rival South Africa’s scenic and cultural diversity. Along with some of the best beaches in the world, the country offers prolific wildlife, bustling cities, coral reefs and stunning scenery.

MUST SEES

- Cape Town Dubbed ‘The Mother City’, Cape Town is a beautiful and compelling city. Your clients can take a cable car to Table Mountain, visit Robben Island, and stroll around the city’s many historical sights and bustling waterfront.

  Winelands Located within just an hour’s drive from Cape Town, the Winelands are comprised of Franschhoek, Paarl and Stellenbosch, all areas that produce some of the world’s finest wines.

- Kruger National Park Known as Big Game Country, Kruger National Park has excellent game-viewing opportunities and several luxurious private reserves in which to stay.

  Indian Ocean Islands Your clients can relax on one of the many white sand beaches of Mauritius, Madagascar or the Seychelles. Each island is unique: Mauritius is great for families, the Seychelles is fantastic for honeymoons and Madagascar appeals to the more adventurous.

- Victoria Falls Although fantastic from both sides, the Zimbabwe side has the longest viewing area of the falls and the town of Victoria Falls is known as the adventure capital of Zimbabwe.

  Hwange National Park This is the largest park in Zimbabwe and home to vast herds of elephant, buffalo, zebra and giraffe; it is an unbeatable safari destination.

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

- Namibia Namibia is the least populated of the Southern African countries, yet the attractions are unrivalled. Your clients can explore the barren Skeleton Coast, go on safari in Etosha National Park, view the spectacular Fish River Canyon, sip a champagne cocktail in Sossusvlei surrounded by the high red dunes and study the fascinating geological features and rock paintings in Damaraland.

- Kwazulu Natal For a truly exhilarating experience, we recommend your clients venture to Kwazulu Natal to see the greatest marine migration, the sardine run, where millions of sardines are pursued up the coastline by game fish and sharks.

SOUTHERN AFRICA: SOUTH AFRICA, ZIMBABWE, NAMIBIA, MOZAMBIQUE AND THE INDIAN OCEAN

We can arrange a behind the scenes tour of the Two Oceans Aquarium in Cape Town followed by dinner.

With regional offices in Hong Kong, Shanghai and Beijing, Abercrombie & Kent can handle operations throughout China and the rest of the Orient, including Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea and Taiwan.

WHY A&K CHINA?

› Over 30 years of experience serving China and the Orient since 1983
› 60 expert members of the team, all multilingual, with specialists on the Great Wall, Forbidden City and Xian Terracotta Museum
› A history of hosting reputable clients such as the World Presidents Organisation, making sure that each programme has substance, is unique, personalised and unmatched by other DMCs

MUST SEE S

Xian A historian’s paradise, Xian served as the ruling seat for eleven different dynastic periods in ancient Chinese history. It is also home to the lifesize terracotta warriors, one of the major landmarks of Xian, and Abercrombie & Kent in China can gain exclusive access to a restoration site for your clients, usually closed to the public.

Guilin A region known for its rugged mountains, crystalline waters and verdant forests, Guilin is one of the most beautiful places in China. Highlights include Li River, Reed Flute Cave, Tunnel Cave and Fuboshan Mountain.

Beijing The capital of the People’s Republic of China, Beijing showcases the country’s long and illustrious history along with its development, from the Great Wall and Forbidden City to the Olympic Stadium, otherwise known as the Bird’s Nest. Other highlights include the Temple of Heaven and the Summer Palace.

Yangtze River The longest river in Asia, and the third longest in the world at 3,900 miles. Abercrombie & Kent China can organise luxury river cruises down the Yangtze, passing Chongqing, Waizhou, the Shennong Stream, the Three Gorges and Yichang en route.

Hong Kong A cosmopolitan city where east meets west. The high rise buildings and elite fashion houses combine with food market stalls, smoky temples and spirited festivals. Highlights of the city include Victoria Peak, Man Mo Temple and Lantau Island.

A behind the scenes tour of the Forbidden City. Your clients can visit halls usually closed to the public for a glimpse of how Imperial families once lived.

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Tibet With an elevation of 4,900 metres, Tibet is the highest region in the world and therefore often referred to as the ‘Roof of the World’. The rich valleys support nomadic herdsmen and their flocks of sheep and yak, and Lhasa’s highlights include Potala Palace, Sera and Drepung Monasteries, and Jokhang Temple.

Pingyao With a history tracing back to 800 BC, the well-preserved Pingyao is a living museum that will take your clients back to ancient China. The renowned City Wall, Ming-Qing Street with well-organised shops, and the earliest Chinese bank create an urban fabric in this UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Silk Road Starting off in Beijing, your clients can venture into the Gobi Desert on a camel safari, meet with an Uighur family in Urumqi, watch the skilful horsemanship of Kazakh nomads, and see the breathtaking scenery along the Karakorum Highway.

› Access to special experiences in the leading travel centers of Japan including Tokyo, Kyoto, Osaka, Hakone, Kanazawa, and Sapporo.

MUST SEES

Tokyo: The capital of Japan since 1868, Tokyo is the traveler’s gateway to the country. Reborn from the ashes of World War II Tokyo is a stunning city that best reflects the aspirations of Japan today. With a population of more than 38 million (the Greater Tokyo Area) Tokyo leads the way for Japan in business, popular culture, cuisine, innovation, and research.

Hakone: Close to Tokyo and one of the best places to view majestic Mount Fuji, Hakone is a natural wonderland of geysers, hot springs, lakes, and splendid views. A visit to Hakone is full of surprises from its world-famous Open Air Museum to invigorating hikes, boat rides on Lake Ashi, and the ultimate traditional onsen experience.

Kyoto: The most culturally rich of all major Japanese cities, Kyoto was capital of Japan from 794 - 1868 and is deeply immersed in tradition. It is famous for its temples and gardens drawing visitors from across Japan and around the world especially during Hanami (cherry blossom period) and the autumn period.

Osaka: Sometimes overlooked by visitors, Osaka is Japan’s third largest city and is celebrated for its food culture, innovative architecture and friendly people. For anyone with a taste for the culinary Osaka is a must with its “foodie” districts, popular snack foods, and vibrant market areas.

Takayama: Nestled in the foothills of Japan’s scenic Alps, Takayama is a charming reminder of Japan before the country’s economic and technological transformation. Narrow streets lined with 19th-century shops, sake breweries, and other businesses, Takayama is traditional Japan.

Sado Island: Located off the west coast of Japan (Sea of Japan) is steeped in culture and natural beauty. Home to the critically endangered Japanese Crested Ibises and rich in marine life, Sado is fast attracting travelers drawn to its natural beauty and unique cultural traditions. The most famous of these is the taiko drumming group, Kodo. Each year the group organizes the “Earth Celebration” a festival that draws performers from throughout Japan and around the world.

The Tohoku Region (including the prefectures of Akita, Aomori, Fukushima, Iwate, Miyagi, and Yamagata) is located in the far north of Japan’s largest island, Honshu. Known by the Japanese for its harsh winter climate, remote location and picturesque natural beauty, this is the place to go if you want pristine wilderness, rugged coastline and authentic local traditions. For visitors interested in avoiding the crowds during Hanami (cherry blossom time) think about travelling to Tohoku in late April. For the winter sports enthusiast Tohoku is a great choice.

Kanazawa: Called “Little Kyoto” for its many cultural landmarks, Kanazawa is a port city on the Sea of Japan. A must see for any traveler interested in experiencing the history and cultural traditions of old Japan without the massive crowds. Here you can explore the city’s geisha quarter and samurai district.

The newest member of the A&K South America family, our Brazil DMC opened its door in December 2016. Our Country Manager brings with him a wealth of global travel experience as well as an in-depth knowledge of luxury services in Brazil’s popular and remote destinations.

From the vibrant colours of Rio, to the serene backdrop of the Brazilian Amazonia and the native wildlife of the Pantanal, our guests will experience all of this backed up by the comfort of five-star facilities, the knowledge of our local team and our consolidated regional presence.

WHY A&K BRAZIL?

› 24/7 personalized attention and quick response time
› Extensive experience in luxury travel
› Experienced, multilingual guides
› Exclusive access to tourist sites
› Unparalleled contacts for off-the-beaten-path experiences
› Easy and effective design and operation of multi-city and multi-country programmes

MUST SEES

Rio de Janeiro Once the capital of the State of Brazil, the Kingdom of Portugal, the Brazilian Empire and the Republic of Brazil, Rio is an exotic destination that combines history, sophistication and unique activities. A visit to Brazil is not complete without experiencing the Cidade Maravilhosa (the Marvellous City) of Rio, arguably among the world’s most beautiful cities boasting a contrast of blue skies, cyan seas and lush green forest.

Iguazu Falls Not just a point where three nations converge, Iguazu is the keeper of the secrets and traditions of the local indigenous cultures who inhabit this part of our continent. The falls boast incredible views, amazing activities and the beautiful power of nature, through the strength of the falling water.

Salvador do Bahia Founded in 1549, it was Brazil’s first capital and is currently the third largest city. This UNESCO heritage site city is noted for its cuisine, music and architecture, which are a result of an interestingly beautiful combination of European, African and South American practices and traditions.

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

Manaus Venturing deep into mythical Amazonia allows guests to witness the immense power of nature, first hand. Trekking through the vast jungle brings close encounters with colourful and fascinating wildlife, such as macaws, monkeys or sloths. It is difficult not to notice the immense love affair between the world’s largest river and the world’s largest rainforest.

Pantanal South America’s wildlife sanctuary is found here, in the largest tropical wetland. It is so large that it knows no borders and extends 195,000 km² through Brazil, Bolivia and Paraguay, a true natural wonder. Besides the unique colourful fauna that is found in Pantanal, some of the species that call this place home include capybaras, tapirs, howler monkeys, caimans and jaguars. In fact, the Brazilian Pantanal is one of the only places you can see jaguars in the wild.
