Hello from A&K Down Under,

We hope your holiday break was an enjoyable one, with time to rest and relax. As we settle into a new year with renewed optimism and promises of positive change, one thing that never changes is a traveller's desire to explore.

A travel bubble is potentially only weeks away between Australia and New Zealand as our COVID-19 numbers continue to stabilise. Australia is excited to once again explore across the Tasman, and we can't wait until the rest of the world is ready to experience the wonders of New Zealand for themselves.

The country is sure to continue captivating discerning travellers, with Conde Nast naming Hokianga at the tip of the North Island, a heartland of Maori history, in its coveted '21 Best Places to Go in 2021' list. Ready for when travellers near and far can explore New Zealand's wonders, Chris Hall our Country Manager and the team have been curating a portfolio of luxurious escapes and extraordinary experiences. From the panoramas of natural beauty that span the South Island, to the epicurean delights and wildlife havens of the North, there is something to appeal to every type of traveller.

For the active adventurers there are endless ways to explore, from skiing down the magnificent mountain landscapes of the Southern Alps, to cycling Nelson's panoramic wine region. For travellers looking to revel in a little romance, the new selection of idyllic honeymoon escapes offers the perfect getaway for new lovers and those celebrating a lifelong partnership, with indulgent romantic experiences set amid some of the country's most awe-inspiring landscapes. And for travellers driven by the promise of flavourful local fare, a discovery of the regions epicurean delights is sure to deliver, with celebrated seafood culture and world-renowned wineries just waiting to be explored.

Be inspired by a selection of our favourite New Zealand itineraries below, and we are waiting to welcome back intrepid travellers to Australia and New Zealand, when the world is ready to start exploring again.

Kind regards,
