Angthong Aquatic Adventure

Embark on a speedboat expedition to the Angthong National Marine Park, a scenic, protected archipelago about one hour away from Koh Samui. A wonderland of green isles and sparkling blue lagoons, the national marine park encompasses 40 islands and is an enchanting seascape filled with caves, mangroves and interesting rock formations. Enjoy snorkeling with colorful fish and magnificent coral reefs near Koh Wao (or Koh Tai Plow). Then explore the coastlines of the marine park and walk up the steps to a viewpoint overlooking Talay Nai, an emerald lake surrounded by karst mountains.

Saigon Scenic Sundown

Sip sundowners along the Saigon River on a memorable night out in Ho Chi Minh City, offering a unique perspective of this vibrant metropolis. Start with a scenic boat ride along this urban jungle's meandering waterway and cruise past the city's most affluent areas, where wealthy residents have built their palatial homes. Marvel at the juxtaposition of opulent residences against undeveloped natural landscapes. Soak up the cool river breeze and peaceful vibes with some drinks and snacks while watching the continuous traffic of riverboats hauling goods across the city.

KIMPTON KITALAY SAMUI Koh Samui, Thailand

Discover tropical luxury at Kimpton Kitalay Samui, a charming sanctuary that sits on the pristine shores of Choeng Mon Beach in Koh Samui. From stunning suites with pool access to thoughtfully designed oceanfront pool villas, the resort's 138 accommodations offer breathtaking sea or garden views.

Why we love it: A visit to Kimpton Kitalay Samui is always a sensory adventure. Savor beach-house-inspired cuisine, sip sunset cocktails in the bar and rejuvenate with luxurious spa treatments, ensuring a memorable getaway.

AZERAICANTHO Can Tho, Vietnam

Azerai Can Tho is a unique oasis located in the heart of Vietnam's Mekong Delta. Seamlessly blending with the lush, tropical landscape, its rooms offer idyllic river, lake or garden views featuring banyan trees, local palms and jasmine. The resort's facilities include a swimming pool and courtyard with a selection of dining outlets, a spa, boutique, gym, tennis courts and children's playground.

Why we love it: To reach this haven is an experience in itself – boarding a wooden boat before setting foot on a private islet hidden amid tranquil waterways and serene mangroves will make your stay extra special and unforgettable.

RAYA VADEE Krabi, Thailand

Dream of limestone cliffs, white sands and emerald waters at Rayavadee, an idyllic retreat nestled between attractive beaches and a national marine park. Scattered across a coconut grove, the spacious two-story pavilions and beachfront villas offer contemporary island living coupled with southern Thai village architecture. Complete with a selection of international dining options and Thai healing treatments at the spa, the resort is ideal for a laidback tropical escape.

Why we love it: Rayavadee's unique integration of its pavilion rooms with native plants, reflecting the orderly design of the surrounding coconut plantation, enables you to appreciate how the resort coexists harmoniously with its natural environment.

In the midst of sweltering heat, a Burmese woman beams with her radiant smile while gracefully carrying a traditional water jug – its contents encapsulating the source of life as she embodies the resilience of her people.
